

Comments from attendees at previous Yale 50th reunions.....

1. Reunion memories linger with me and with others I have spoken to. It was an extraordinary experience marked most of all by a pervasive feeling of kindness and warmth and friendship and fellowship. In an era when our discourse is edged with criticism and negativity, I never heard an unkind word about anything all weekend. I hung around Woolsey Hall Sunday morning as long as I could and dragged my way out with a whole mix of feelings. What a time it was!!
2. Just a few words of thanks for a marvelous 50th reunion. Everything was perfectly organized and everything was fun. I know that you put in countless hours, but the result was worth every minute you spent.
3. Bravo! Well done! Again! The 50th was a perfect moment! Thank you!!
4. Thank you so much for the warm welcome the Class of 1961 afforded the widows of their classmates. It was a great weekend and a credit to all your hard work and dedication.
5. The film was extraordinary. Having watched it three times now, I take from it an awareness of the good work our classmates have accomplished in life and some regrets about things I missed at Yale. My wife loved the film as well and so did our kids. When it ends with John Blum's comments about friends, and books with the music, I get very emotional. What a great man!
